The main content area is titled 'Welcome to Zapier!' and 'Create your own workflow'. It includes the instruction: 'Know exactly what you want to build? Select the apps you want to connect to start your custom setup.' Below this, a workflow builder is shown with a red box highlighting the selection process. It features a 'Connect this app...' field containing 'Google Sheets' and a 'with this one!' field containing 'notion'. A dropdown menu below the second field shows 'Notion' as the selected option.

Below the workflow builder, there is a section titled 'Recommended workflows for you' with four suggestions, each with a 'Try it' button:

- Save new Gmail emails matching certain traits to a Google Spreadsheet (Gmail + Google Sheets)
- Collect new Typeform responses as rows on Google Sheets (Typeform + Google Sheets)
- Generate rows in Google Sheets for new Unbounce submissions (Unbounce + Google Sheets)
- Create Trello cards from new rows on Google Sheets (Google Sheets + Trello)

The screenshot shows the Zapier dashboard interface. On the left is a sidebar with navigation options: '+ Create Zap', 'Dashboard', 'Zaps', 'Transfers', 'My Apps', 'Zap History', 'Explore', and 'Get Help'. Below the sidebar, the 'Free Plan' is detailed with 'Tasks 0 / 100' and 'Zaps 2 / 5', along with a 'Manage Plan' link and an 'Upgrade plan' button.

The main content area is titled 'Welcome to Zapier!' and 'Create your own workflow'. It prompts the user to 'Know exactly what you want to build? Select the apps you want to connect to start your custom setup.' The workflow configuration is as follows:

- Connect this app...: Google Sheets
- with this one!: Notion
- When this happens...: New Spreadsheet Row
- then do this!: Create Database Item

A summary card below the configuration shows the workflow: 'Create database item in Notion when new spreadsheet row in Google Sheets' (Google Sheets + Notion), with a 'Try it' button highlighted in red.

At the bottom, there is a section for 'Recommended workflows for you':

- 'Save new Gmail emails matching certain traits to a Google Spreadsheet' (Gmail + Google Sheets)
- 'Collect new Typeform responses as rows on Google Sheets' (Typeform + Google Sheets)

The workflow steps are:

- 1. Connect your apps
Connect your accounts to Zapier. The diagram shows a Google Sheets icon connected to a Notion icon, both with a green checkmark.
- 2. Set up your Zap
Choose which data to send to Notion. The diagram shows a Notion card with a green checkmark.
- 3. Turn on your Zap
Start automating your work. The diagram shows a Google Sheets icon connected to a Notion icon with a lightning bolt icon, and a toggle switch is turned on.
